

LESSON 1.1

aggravate: (v.) to make worse

ex. Scratching your rash will only aggravate the condition.

endure: (v.) to last; to continue to exist

ex. Did your house endure the earthquake?

immense: (adj.) huge; enormous

ex. Blue whales are immense creatures.

malice: (n.) the desire to harm another; ill will

ex. It is reasonable to fear someone who shows malice towards you.

scoff: (v.) to show scorn; to look down on or make fun of someone or something

ex. People used to scoff at early automobiles, but that attitude didn't last.

LESSON 1.1

aggravate: (v.) to make worse

ex. Scratching your rash will only aggravate the condition.

endure: (v.) to last; to continue to exist

ex. Did your house endure the earthquake?

immense: (adj.) huge; enormous

ex. Blue whales are immense creatures.

malice: (n.) the desire to harm another; ill will

ex. It is reasonable to fear someone who shows malice towards you.

scoff: (v.) to show scorn; to look down on or make fun of someone or something

ex. People used to scoff at early automobiles, but that attitude didn't last.