

LESSON 1.3

cower: (v.) to crouch and tremble; to shrink back in fear or because of pain

ex. Whenever the cruel king was angry, all his servants would cower in fear.

futile: (adj.) useless, worthless, or hopeless; not effective

ex. Our efforts to put out the fire were futile because it was too large.

laborious: (adj.) involving or requiring labor or much hard work; difficult

ex. Plowing rocky soil is a laborious job and requires a lot of time and effort.

predicament: (n.) a difficult or unpleasant situation

ex. Our flat tire put us in a predicament because we were now going to be late to the meeting.

unanimous: (adj.) in complete agreement

ex. The group's decision about creating a slideshow rather than a video for their project was unanimous.

LESSON 1.3

cower: (v.) to crouch and tremble; to shrink back in fear or because of pain

ex. Whenever the cruel king was angry, all his servants would cower in fear.

futile: (adj.) useless, worthless, or hopeless; not effective

ex. Our efforts to put out the fire were futile because it was too large.

laborious: (adj.) involving or requiring labor or much hard work; difficult

ex. Plowing rocky soil is a laborious job and requires a lot of time and effort.

predicament: (n.) a difficult or unpleasant situation

ex. Our flat tire put us in a predicament because we were now going to be late to the meeting.

unanimous: (adj.) in complete agreement

ex. The group's decision about creating a slideshow rather than a video for their project was unanimous.