

Lesson 2.1

cliché: (n.) a phrase that is no longer very effective or meaningful because of being used too often

ex. Pink for girls and blue for boys – I can't believe people still follow to this cliché.

deception: (n.) a trick or lie; something that's deceives

ex. A scarecrow is a deception that makes crows think a person is in the field.

falter: (v.) to hesitate; to not go straight onward; to lose courage

ex. The soldiers did not falter even though they faced almost certain death.

jubilant: (adj.) feeling great joy; filled with gladness and rejoicing

ex. We were all jubilant when Ronna scored the winning goal with only seconds left in the game.

retrieve: (v.) to get back; to recover

ex. I dropped a quarter in the snow but was able to quickly retrieve it because I saw where it landed.

Lesson 2.1

cliché: (n.) a phrase that is no longer very effective or meaningful because of being used too often

ex. Pink for girls and blue for boys – I can't believe people still follow to this cliché.

deception: (n.) a trick or lie; something that's deceives

ex. A scarecrow is a deception that makes crows think a person is in the field.

falter: (v.) to hesitate; to not go straight onward; to lose courage

ex. The soldiers did not falter even though they faced almost certain death.

jubilant: (adj.) feeling great joy; filled with gladness and rejoicing

ex. We were all jubilant when Ronna scored the winning goal with only seconds left in the game.

retrieve: (v.) to get back; to recover

ex. I dropped a quarter in the snow but was able to quickly retrieve it because I saw where it landed.

Lesson 2.1

cliché: (n.) a phrase that is no longer very effective or meaningful because of being used too often

ex. Pink for girls and blue for boys – I can't believe people still follow to this cliché.

deception: (n.) a trick or lie; something that's deceives

ex. A scarecrow is a deception that makes crows think a person is in the field.

falter: (v.) to hesitate; to not go straight onward; to lose courage

ex. The soldiers did not falter even though they faced almost certain death.

jubilant: (adj.) feeling great joy; filled with gladness and rejoicing

ex. We were all jubilant when Ronna scored the winning goal with only seconds left in the game.

retrieve: (v.) to get back; to recover

ex. I dropped a quarter in the snow but was able to quickly retrieve it because I saw where it landed.