

LESSON 3.2

acute: (adj.) sharp and severe

Ex. I felt an acute pain in my side and had to go to the hospital.

foolhardy: (adj.) foolishly daring

Ex. Jumping off the roof was a foolhardy act and was not a safe thing to do.

initiative: (n.) a first step or movement; an act that begins something

Ex. I took the initiative by introducing myself to the new student.

ponder: (v.) to consider carefully; to think deeply about, often over a period of time

Ex. I need to ponder this decision, I'll have to give you my answer tomorrow.

vague: (adj.) not clear or definite

Ex. I gave the teacher a vague answer because I was unsure of what I was saying.

LESSON 3.2

acute: (adj.) sharp and severe

Ex. I felt an acute pain in my side and had to go to the hospital.

foolhardy: (adj.) foolishly daring

Ex. Jumping off the roof was a foolhardy act and was not a safe thing to do.

initiative: (n.) a first step or movement; an act that begins something

Ex. I took the initiative by introducing myself to the new student.

ponder: (v.) to consider carefully; to think deeply about, often over a period of time

Ex. I need to ponder this decision, I'll have to give you my answer tomorrow.

vague: (adj.) not clear or definite

Ex. I gave the teacher a vague answer because I was unsure of what I was saying.