

LESSON 4.3

adorn: (v.) to add beauty to

Ex. Our neighbor likes to adorn her poodle with sweaters little pink bows.

folly: (n.) a lack of sense; foolishness; a foolish action or belief

Ex. It was a folly for us to try to remove the beehive from the attic ourselves.

mere: (adj.) nothing more or other than; only

Ex. The mere sight of a dog made her afraid

reverence: (n.) a feeling or attitude of deep respect

Ex. Our national anthem, expresses a feeling of reverence for the flag.

valor: (n.) great courage or bravery

Ex. The soldier received a medal for valor while in combat overseas.

LESSON 4.3

adorn: (v.) to add beauty to

Ex. Our neighbor likes to adorn her poodle with sweaters little pink bows.

folly: (n.) a lack of sense; foolishness; a foolish action or belief

Ex. It was a folly for us to try to remove the beehive from the attic ourselves.

mere: (adj.) nothing more or other than; only

Ex. The mere sight of a dog made her afraid

reverence: (n.) a feeling or attitude of deep respect

Ex. Our national anthem, expresses a feeling of reverence for the flag.

valor: (n.) great courage or bravery

Ex. The soldier received a medal for valor while in combat overseas.